

REPUBLICAN MEETING

SEPT. 22, '16, 8:00 P. M.

Ex-Governor J. H. Kibbey,
Judge A. J. Baughn,
Honorable J. B. Prochaska
and Mr. N. J. McKinzie

Will address the voters of Yuma County at the

YUMA THEATRE

Everybody Invited

Fortunate it is, for the people of this state, and doubly fortunate it is for the party that the Republicans, with the aid of a considerable array of Democrats, were able to induce Judge Otis J. Baughn of the superior court of Pinal county, who is well known in Yuma to enter the race for the supreme court. Judge Baughn was urged to run, not only because he will bring to the supreme court the highest type of a vigorous clean, able jurist, but because he will give to the court that flavor of non-partisanship which was the intent of the people when they adopted Arizona's Constitution.

No Democrat will have any reason for refusing to support Judge Baughn for the supreme court on November 7th. The Democrats were in the majority in the convention which drafted the constitution, and hence every Democrat is committed to the non-partisan idea regarding the judiciary. If he is true to his party he will make good his pretensions by voting for Judge Baughn, thus making the supreme court really non-partisan. He can do this without "scratching" his ticket, as the judges are at the top of the ballot and are not in the party columns.

Judge Baughn is a square and able judge. That he is well thought of at home is proven by the following statement which appeared in a recent article in the Casa Grande Dispatch, a Democratic paper:

"Judge Baughn has an excellent record in Pinal county. He is spoken of most highly by both Democrats and Republicans. All admit that he is square absolutely, and that he has made an able and splendid judge."

What better or finer tribute could a candidate receive from the opposition? And what better man could be elected to the supreme court than a judge who has made such a record on the bench already in this state? Let us all see that he is elected.

Henry Ford recently slipped into San Francisco, dodging reporters, shunning automobiles and photographers and avoiding all publicity. It is to be hoped Mr. Ford will soon recover his usual good health.

Dimitracopules will not be the Greek premier, for which every printer will be thankful.

Cured Her Children of Colds.
"During the past winter I had occasion to give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to my two children, who were at the time suffering from severe colds. It proved to be the very medicine they needed," writes Mrs. Myron J. Pickard, Memphis, N. Y. Obtainable everywhere.—Advertisement.

WANTED—ACTIVE MAN

One of the largest publishing houses in New York has an opening for an active man in this territory. The opportunity is a splendid one and the right man can acquire complete control of our local business and soon elevate himself to district managership. Address, Publisher, Box 155 N. Times Square Sta., New York City. 160-61 Pd.

HAND SHAKING RECORD.

A record in hand shaking is thought to have been made at the San Diego Exposition recently when Charles Evans Hughes, Republican candidate for president, and Mrs. Hughes, greeted 2500 men and women in the forty-five minutes for their reception.

J. F. Delgado and family wish to thank their many friends through the Examiner for the many acts of kindness shown, following the death of Joe Delgado, son and brother, who was buried at the Yuma cemetery yesterday, under the auspices of the Spanish American Alliance.

ARIZONA'S SUPREME COURT.

When the framers of Arizona's constitution considered the question of the courts of our state, they provided that the names of all candidates for either the supreme or the superior courts should have their names "placed on the regular ballot in alphabetical order without any partisan or other designation except the title of the office." Here is a provision in regard to our courts the intent of which is that the courts shall be non-partisan. The first state legislature ignored this intent entirely when they provided that candidates for either the supreme or the superior courts must be nominated in the party primaries. The supreme court of this state ought to be non-partisan. That it has not been non-partisan but has been wholly partisan and Democratic is known to all the people of Arizona. The voters of this state will be called upon in November to say whether they mean to have the supreme court of this state really non-partisan, in accord with the intent of the constitution, or whether they intend to keep the court solidly Democratic and intensely partisan.

Perhaps few voters realize the importance of the supreme court in this state. The term is for six years as against two years for the governor. No situation can arise that cannot be gotten into court in some sort of proceeding, and the supreme court has the "last say." Hence we maintain it is of the utmost importance to the people of this state that this high office be properly filled by the election of a square, efficient judge, regardless of politics.
